

REMEMBER THIS IS
BLACKARD'S TROY LAUNDRY,
Prairie Ave., Phone 332.
TEXAS.
TON.

ROASTED COFFEE.
We are just organized and are now in the Coffee Department.
The purpose of supplying the Texas market with Fresh Roasted Coffee of the highest quality and most delicate blends.
Our coffee is not evaporated by a process from distant markets. recommend our

Alex Brand
is a standard brand on the market with the distinct advantage of being interval from roaster to

Fancy Blend

ame Mecha and Java will make the delicious and luxurious cup of coffee that the most tasteful taste could now prepare to supply the any quantities, and respectfully our orders.

D. Cleveland & Co.,
HOUSTON, TEXAS.

edding
vitations, $3.00 Per 100.

for SPECIMENS OF OUR WORK.

PASTORIZA P. & L. CO.,
HOUSTON.

FOR PRICES ON
GALVANIZED TIN PLATE
OF ALL KINDS.

SHEET IRON,
GALVANIZED AND BLACK.

IRON FENCING,

ASBESTOS, FELT, ETC.

APPLY TO

H. PEDEN, & CO.
IMPORTERS,
TELEPHONE 150.

st Arrived!

New Crop Messina Lemons, and 250 sizes.

New York State Seed Potatoes, Rose, Goodrich, Peerless and Lima.

THOMPSON & CO.
FIRE INSURANCE.

Houston Fire will pay $100 legal fees of any person who dies by accident, provided the time the person so dying was his or her body "THIS DAY".

This insurance holds good for any sum from $100 to $10,000 in any part of the paper. Saturday grants of all kinds may be made within the limits of the office of The Houston Post.
This policy is void unless it is upon the person at death.

ERING & BRO.,
Wholesale and retail dealers in HORSES, BLINDS, SHINGLES, LUMBER, BARN WEIGHTS, CORD, ETC.

For Heath & Munson Best Paint and Kiln Specials, Houston.

P. SHEARN,
Dealer in HORN SED., CERM., OATS, BURN, HAY
AND ALL KINDS FEED.

and Capital Bls., telephone No. 40.

ARLTON & CO.,
Wholesale
and Commiss' Merchants

100 Trade Street, Phone 332.

Any kind of Corn, Hay, and all kinds of Feed.

for prices at our expense.

GALVESTON TRAINS LEAVE:

6:10 a.m.
11:00 a.m.
5:25 p.m.

VIA
the International Route

DEPOT FOOT OF CONGRESS AVENUE.

MAILABLE EDITION. THE HOUSTON DAILY POST.

NINTH YEAR. NO. 303.

HOUSTON, TEXAS, SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 3, 1894.

PRICE: 5 CEN TS.

NOW ARRIVING.

HAWAII IN THE HOUSE.

REPORT CONDEMNING STEVENS'
ACTION INTRODUCED.

M. Boutelle of Maine Again a Prominent Sharp Colloquial Debate.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED IN THE SENATE
CALLING FOR ROAD STATISTICS.

Mr. Garfield Expected to Look Into Applications for Officers—Board Subscriptions and Gold Deposited—Texas Matters.

Washington, February 2.—Before the reading of the journal this morning Mr.
Morse of Massachusetts, in a parliamentary inquiry, asked if it would be in order for him to offer an amendment for a title to the tariff bill. The speaker said that it would not.

The amendment which Mr. Morse desired to offer would have made it read as follows:

"A bill to increase taxation, reduce the revenue of the government, and to place at a disadvantage our honest men who make truthful returns and for other purposes."

As soon as the journal was read the speaker recognized Mr. Catchings of Ms.
Mississippi, from the committee on rules, to present from the committee a report setting aside today Saturday and Monday for the consideration of the McCleary Hawaiian resolution. The report provided that the favorable report of the committee on foreign affairs on the Hawaiian question should be taken up forthwith and be considered today and the next two days—Saturday and Monday. A vote to do this will be taken at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, at which time no intervening motions are to be in order. The rule provides that immediately on voting the house shall take up the minority report on Hawaii for consideration until it is disposed of.

Mr. Boutelle of Maine was on his feet clawing for recognition, to call up his Hawaiian resolution, but the speaker declined to recognize him until the report was read. After being recognized Mr.
Boutelle said in his report the point of order that the report of the committee on rules could not dispose of a privileged resolution without the rights—say, the very existence of the house itself. Mr. Boutelle asked that the question of privilege be submitted for the determination of the committee.

"I call the committee to order," shouted Mr. Boutelle, "to sit down." And he did, but the speaker thought the submission of a special order, the quickest and most effective way to give the house a chance to act on the matter.

Mr. Catchings explained the purpose of submitting the special order. Mr. Catchings said the committee thought the submission of a special order, the quickest
and most effective way to give the house
a chance to act on the matter.

"It is the same sort of proceeding that characterizes franchises in the South," inflected Mr. Reed, sarcastically. "It is unworthy the gentleman. He betrays his own greatness when he descends to the plane of his colleagues."

"We did not submit the rule to the gentlemen from Maine," Boutelle complained, "but we did submit it in addition to it would only give a few men in his fantastic and delusional generation on the floor."

"I call the committee to order," shouted
Mr. Boutelle, "to sit down," and he did, and I think his words were taken up by the speaker again.

Mr. Boutelle said in his report the point of order which had superseded the ordinary rules of the house were not in order.

If there was any importance in this it was the action of the house, not the action of the speaker. The house would now be given an opportunity to decide by vote whether it should proceed by the method suggested.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the committee on rules." On this point of order he allowed all extraneous proceedings, under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

Mr. Boutelle made the point of no question. Subsequently, after the request of friends, he withdrew the point of order and Mr. Catchings was allowed to proceed in order.

Mr. Boutelle said in his report the point of order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house were not in order.

If there was any importance in this
it was the action of the house, not the
action of the speaker. The house would
now be given an opportunity to decide by
vote whether it should proceed by

the method suggested.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.

The speaker in making a ruling stated
that beyond question the ordinary proceedings of the house could be interrupted
by a question of privilege or a privileged
question, "not under the report of the
committee on rules." On this point of
order he allowed all extraneous proceedings,
under an order which had superseded the ordinary
rules of the house.